1. On 26 May 1947, Sowjetischer Erdolbetrieb in Vienna received from Moscow an economic plan for the Zistersdorf area for the balance of 1947 and 1948. The plan provides:

- a. All incomplete workers houses, totalling about 40, are to be finished as family homes. Also, 8 new 3-story houses are to be built in Neusiedl and Hauskirchen. The houses are simple structures which are to be divided into 2 and 3-room apartments.
- b. A cooperative store is to be established to supply all needs of the workers. [REDACTED] Comment: Sowjetische Mineraloelverwaltung has a store of this type in Vienna for Soviets and for Austrians in executive capacities).
- c. Sixty new drilling installations are to be set up in Neusiedl, Prinzendorf, and Muehlberg. These are to be primarily marginal drillings (Randbohrungen) at production sites, I, II, VIII, IX, XIV, and XVI. [REDACTED] Comment: No material or machinery is available to complete the wells begun by the Germans or maintain others, but Kornev of Deutsche Erdol A.G. says the necessary supplies will come from Russia and America. Twenty-five technicians are to arrive from Russia for the drilling.
- d. Three small refineries are to be built in Neusiedl close to the pump house at the railroad loading station.
- e. A station with 4 compressors of 60 atmosphere capacity is to be built at Steinberg [REDACTED] Comment: The Germans had plans drawn up for this purpose. Hambold of D.E.A. told the Russians of these plans and secured the German documents from the western zones in 1946).
- f. A light railway is to be extended 9 kilometers from Neusiedl to Prinzendorf and Hauskirchen.
